Old Business:

Steve Berger reported that the amount of donations collected at the Christmas Party was overwhelming and greatly appreciated by both the Carbon County Friends of Animals and the Carbon County Animal Shelter. There were only 7 dogs in the one shelter but numerous cats in the other. He was told if anyone was interested in making a monetary donation, the check should be made out to the Leighton Animal Hospital for veterinarian care for the animals but contact the hospital to find out how exactly the check should be written.

Eli's Day Dream: Howard reported that a check for $500 was sent to them in December 2021

Christmas Party – The Christmas Party was a huge success. 103 people attended. The food was fantastic. Many thanks to Donna Barone for a great job organizing the event.
