All in favor, motion carried

Old Business:

Lansford Alive Car Cruise – Joe Boyle will contact Donna to confirm our responsibility in regards to the dash plaques. The date for the event is September 25th, 9:30 am to 6:00 pm with the car cruise/show ending sometime earlier in the afternoon.

Mahoning Valley Nursing Home Car Show – There was a great turnout of cars and the residence really enjoyed the day. The club did well and raised $460.00 for the gate/donations and $90.00 on the 50/50 raffle. Thank you to all that participated.

903 Park Banner – To date we haven't looked into this yet. Tom Whiteley again mentioned the issue in the evenings with loitering.

20th Anniversary Car Show – The show went well in spite of the weather. The club raised $799.00 of which there was $3 in decal sales, $30 for two new membership applications, $156 on the 50/50 raffle and $610 at the gate. Thanks to all that came, helped and participated. Also the Times News ran an article on the show and Dave Curran did an excellent job providing the clubs information that was used.

New Business:

Hot Dogs & Hot Rods – Tony could not be in attendance at this meeting but did report he must postpone the event due to work on his lawn. He will work on coming up with a new date as soon as he can.

New Member – We have application for 4 new memberships

Sean & Marian Hegarty of Tamaqua, PA, sponsored by Michael Heffelfinger
Kyle & Patty Packard of Slatington, PA, sponsored by Tim Koch @ 20th car show
Peter Klopchin of Barto, PA, sponsored by Amber Curran @ 20th car show
