Old Business:

Phil Botti brought up the issue with still trying to find someone to fill the Vice-President position so he doesn't have to continue to hold both Treasurer and VP positions.

Tom Whiteley reported that the fire company is a go for continuing the Friday Night Cruises in 2016.

There was discussion again on trying to have a rain date for the cruise nights. Tom will bring it up at their next meeting for suggestion as to what may work the best for them.

Joe Barone mentioned about the Valley Athletics arrangement. For now if there is anyone who would want something before the new year they can do it.

Christmas Party discussion: We will send out a revised invite to include the menu and also Bobby V was happy to be invited and will also attend.

New Business:

Nothing to report.

Correspondance:

Donation request from the American Diabetes Assoc. and the Red Cross.

We received a thank you letter from the Carbon/Tamaqua American Cancer Society for our donation we made earlier this year.

With there being no further business, a motion was made to adjourn by:

Joe Curran
2nd by Joe Barachie
All in favor, motion carried.
